

Santa Gertrudes de Arivaca
Arivaca
Arizona

HABS No. ARIZ-8

HABS
ARIZ

10. ARIV

1-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Arizona

Historic American Buildings Survey
District of Arizona
Frederick D. Nichols, Acting District Officer,
Branch of Plans and Design.

HABS
ARIZ.

10-ARIV

1-

SANTA GERTRUDES DE ARIVACA
Arivaca, Pima County, Arizona

Owner:

Date of Erection: circa 1700

Architect:

Builder: Probably built by Jesuit order

Present Condition: Ruinous

Number of Stories: One

Materials of Construction: Adobe, stucco

Other Existing Records: "Spanish Missions of the Old Southwest", Hallenback.
"Mission Architecture", Prentice Duell.
"Spanish-Colonial Architecture in the United States", Rexford Newcomb.

Additional Data: This church was a visita, and priests from the neighboring churches cared for it. Abandoned by 1751, it was entirely Jesuit. (Ref. Regional Historian Neasham, National Park Service, Santa Fe.)

Author: Frederick D. Nichols
Frederick D. Nichols

Approved: May 1939 JPD